100,000 Songs of Milarepa
His Eminence Garchen Rinpoche

For Tibetans, The 100,000 Songs of Milarepa is comparable in status to the Hindu Mahabharata and the Christian Bible. Its author, Milarepa, is the most well-known Dharma Practitioner of all time, and he is revered throughout Tibet and India for his unsurpassed spiritual attainment in just one lifetime. Milarepa lived during the eleventh century as a cotton (repa)-clad yogin. He avoided the scholarly institutions of his time and wandered from village to village, teaching and demonstrating the path to Buddhahood through his spontaneously composed songs (dohas). His songs are filled with powerful, crystal clear advice for practitioners as well as stories of the miraculous, and they present immeasurable insight into the living tradition of Tibetan Buddhism and its profoundly transformative practice.

His Eminence Garchen Rinpoche is a Drikung Kagyu lama who was known in the thirteenth century as the Siddha Gar Chodingpa, a heart disciple of Kyobpa Jigten Sumgon, founder of the Drikung Kagyu lineage of Tibetan Buddhism. For many years, Garchen Rinpoche has made great effort to rebuild the Drikung Kagyu monasteries, reestablish the Buddhist teachings, and build two boarding schools for local children in eastern Tibet. Rinpoche is the founder and spiritual director of the Garchen Buddhist Institute in Chino Valley, Arizona.
